

Movement FOR THE Abolition of War

TUESDAY
15 MAY 2018
6.30PM

Award-winning documentary film telling the story of Costa Rica's decision 70 years ago to give up its army and devote scarce resources to health, education and welfare. Having survived several serious crises, the current threats to the Costa Rica model may be the most serious of all.

Mander Hall
Hamilton House

Mabledon Place

LONDON
WC1H 9BD

Nearest stations: Euston,
St Pancras, King's Cross

Writer, Director & Producer

Matthew Eddy

will introduce the film and answer questions

Tickets £6

(includes bkg fee) from [https://maw-a-bold-
peace.brownpaperticke
ts.com/](https://maw-a-bold-peace.brownpapertickets.com/)

More info: 020 8898 4850

MOVEMENT FOR THE ABOLITION OF WAR
www.abolishwar.org.uk
020 3397 3019
tim.devereux
@abolishwar.org.uk