DISARM! FOR A CLIMATE OF PEACE

Creating an action agenda

30 September – 2 October 2016
Technische Universität, Berlin

We believe the $1,700 billion annual global military expenditure should instead be spent on:

- Climate change - mitigation
- Humanitarian programmes - for the most vulnerable
- Peace - disarmament, conflict prevention & resolution
- Public services - social justice, human rights, gender equality, green jobs
- Sustainable development
